STRESS & RESCUE

Improve your diving confidence, enjoyment and safety with the Stress & Rescue Diver course by Scuba Schools International (SSI). Learn to recognize situations that lead to problems, prevent accidents and handle situations when they do arise. You'll become a better diver and buddy.

REQUIREMENTS

To participate in the Stress & Rescue Diver course, you must:

- Be at least 14 years old.
- Be certified as an Open Water Diver or Junior Open Water Diver or equivalent.
- Have logged at least 12 dives.
- Have dive experience within the past 1 year.
- Complete the home-study academic portion of training. Fill out the study guide questions.
- Complete and sign a confidential medical questionnaire. If certain medical conditions exist, you must have a signature from a physician.

TRAINING

The Stress & Rescue Diver course is a 3-step process:

1. Study academics at home at your convenience. Review the text, watch the video, and complete the study guide.
2. Complete academic review in the classroom and pool sessions with your SSI instructor.
3. Complete open water dives. Apply your skills during 2 open water training sessions.
